INVESTING IN PUBLIC TRANSPORT FOR THE FUTURE

The Malinauskas Government's first State Budget will invest in public transport for the future, including beginning the process of putting trains and trams back into public hands.

The 2022-23 State Budget handed down by Treasurer Stephen Mullighan includes:

- $1 million to fund a Commission of Inquiry to advise the government on the return of trains and trams into public ownership
- $55.1 million for reinstating the construction and operation of a Port Rail Spur from the Outer Harbor line
- $29.4 million for improving services to Mount Barker and the Adelaide Hills
- $10 million to optimise the operation of the automated protection system on the Seaford Line
- $4.9 million in additional funding for regional bus services
- $2.2 million for increased surveillance of taxis and rideshare
- $2 million to upgrade the Noarlunga Interchange
- $1.6 million to upgrade Clarence Park train station
- $1.5 million to install an activated pedestrian rail crossing near Kilkenny Primary School
- $1.4 million to ensure the continued running of the Overland Train service between Adelaide and Melbourne
- $860,000 to improve safety in the CBD by reinstating managed taxi ranks
- $530,000 to construct a car park and kiss and ride space adjacent the Tambelin Railway Station
- $500,000 to install CCTV at West Croydon Railway Station
- $416,000 for investigations into how to better integrate public transport opportunities in regional areas

2022-23

The investment into public transport safety and accessibility delivers on Labor's election commitments.

Quotes attributable to Peter Malinauskas

Our trains and trams belong in public hands, and we are taking the first steps towards realising our election commitment to make that happen.

An investment into our public transport infrastructure is an investment into our State's future and ensures the long-term liveability of our city.

Quotes attributable to Stephen Mullighan

This budget has a strong focus on building up State infrastructure, creating jobs in construction and delivering on important election commitments.

These are important projects that communities across our State have been calling for, and we are excited to deliver on our word.

Quotes attributable to Tom Koutsantonis

We are determined to upgrade and invest in our public transport infrastructure and keep our commuters safe.
